DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claims 1 and 3-9, drawn to a method of making resin fine particles comprising heating and reducing the heating temperature.

Group II, claims 2, 19 and 20, drawn to a method of making resin particles comprising sealing, heating and quenching pressure.

Group III, claim(s) 10-13, drawn to a polyolefin resin particle.

Group IV, claim(s) 14 and 15, drawn to a polyester resin particle.

Group V, claim(s) 16-18, drawn to an acrylic resin particle.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: materially different process steps: the releasing pressure in group I is accomplished by reducing temperature while the releasing pressure in group II is done by quenching pressure.

3. The inventions listed as Groups I and (III-V) do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the method of group I is not used to make the product of groups III-V.

4. The inventions listed as Groups II and (III-V) do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the method of group I is not used to make the product of groups III-V.

5. During a telephone conversation with Applicant's Representative, Joseph Ruch on September 25, 2007, a provisional election was made without traverse to prosecute the invention of group I, claims 1 and 3-9. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 2 and 10-18 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Claim Objections

7. Claims 1 and 3-9 are objected to because of the following informalities: Although claims are understandable, they are not readily clear because of awkward wordings.

8. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

9. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Art Unit: 1794

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

10. Claims 1 and 3-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by the Japanese patent JP 2003-268,119 (“JP’119”).*

Claim 1: JP’119 teaches a method for making fine particles comprising mixing a polymer and a supercritical fluid at a high pressure and reducing the temperature rapidly to generate the resin fine particles. See claim 1.

Claims 3 and 4: See claim 2.

Claim 5: See paragraph [0009], last sentence and paragraph [0021].

Claims 6-9: The properties as claimed are deemed to be met by inference because the process taught in JP’119 is the same process as claimed.
